

The Ultimate Battle of the Sharpest Sales Minds: Sales-Map Cup 2024

Are you a B2B sales pro confident in your instincts? The Sales-Map Cup 2024 is your chance to claim the title of the most savvy sales person by excelling in the online Sales-Map Situational Judgment Test. Welcome to compete against top sales talent and gain valuable feedback! Each participant will receive a Sales-Map report with feedback based on their answers. The top 10 participants in each country will receive a certificate. Great chance to win national titles! The grand prize for the global winner? A real, physical trophy sent to you to show off your sales supremacy!

Here's how to participate:

- Register before October 30th.
- Your access code to the online Sales-Map test will be sent to you on November 7th, 8 AM your local time.
- Complete the Sales-Map test in one session, under one hour (typical completion time is 38 minutes), before November 10th, 12 PM your local time.

Rules and conditions:

- Maximum 3 people per company can participate.
- The participant with the highest total score wins. Answers will be judged primarily on quality, not speed, as long as the test is completed in less than an hour. However, in the event of a tie, the shorter completion time wins.
- Your scores will be kept confidential. Only national champions and the cup winner will be announced.

Join our online event on November 22nd, 4 PM Singapore time, to discover the winners! The event will also be an opportunity to meet the authors of Sales-Map and ask them any questions you may have.

Welcome to learn and shine, and (sales) map your way to victory! To register, fill in the form: <https://forms.gle/qDcPv2CjoSKcPoJcA>
